2016 ANNUAL REPORT
INTRODUCTION
A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Values are much more than words on our website. Values shape the commitment we make to the children and families who trust and depend upon Sarah Heinz House. They define who we are as an organization and reflect the professionalism of the staff and volunteers who serve the hundreds of youth coming through our doors each week.

Kids 1st is our highest value. Their emotional and physical safety, learning and development and sheer enjoyment of their childhood and adolescent years is what matters most in all we do.

Whether they’re engaged in afterschool and weekend programs or summer camp, our foremost responsibility is to provide experiences that let them know that the high expectations and standards we set for them represent the equally high level of respect and value in which we hold them.

Sarah Heinz House is a community-sort of an extended family, for each youth. We know they do not fully leave behind the real world challenges or forget each frustration they encountered on any given day. But this extended family, comprised of friends, and peer and adult mentors offers a safe and caring environment to help set them aside or resolve them in a healthy and positive way.

Kids 1st is what our parents, partners and donors expect. We are humbled by the respect and confidence that leads parents to entrust their children to us each day. We are grateful to all the individuals, companies and foundations who choose Sarah Heinz House as a trusted partner in fulfilling their goal of improving the lives and opportunities of our region’s youth.

After reviewing this report we welcome your questions, your interest in forming a partnership or to discuss impactful ways to further invest your gifts of time, talent and funding.

Thank you for your support and for all the good you do for Sarah Heinz House kids.

Sincerely,

Anthony Marfisi

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR YOUTH OF THE YEAR, HALEY LEX!

“AT SARAH HEINZ HOUSE I WAS ABLE TO OVERCOME THE CHALLENGES IN MY LIFE. I BECAME A VOLUNTEER, STARTED IN THE ROBOTICS PROGRAM, AND JOINED THE TEEN LEADERSHIP KEYSTONE CLUB. I WATCHED MY MENTORS WORK HARD AND SUCCEED, WHICH MOTIVATED ME TO DO THE SAME. THROUGH THE CLUB I LEARNED HOW TO TALK TO KIDS MY OWN AGE, KNEW WHAT IT MEANT TO FEEL SAFE, AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, FOUND MYSELF AND WHO I ALWAYS WANTED TO BE.”

Following a review of presentations by five finalists, a panel of guest judges selected Haley as Sarah Heinz House’s Youth of the Year. Haley qualified to advance the Pennsylvania Youth of the Year program sponsored by Boys and Girls Clubs of America.

A high school sophomore attending Pittsburgh Public Schools, Haley is being recognized for her demonstrated leadership and service, commitment to academic excellence and the dedication to live a healthy lifestyle.

According to Haley, “At Sarah Heinz House I was able to overcome the challenges in my life. I became a volunteer, started in the robotics program, and joined the teen leadership Keystone Club. I watched my mentors work hard and succeed, which motivated me to do the same. Through the club I learned how to talk to kids my own age, knew what it meant to feel safe, and most importantly, found myself and who I always wanted to be.”

In the view of Jennifer Cairns, Executive Director of Sarah Heinz House, “Haley is an amazing young woman. Everyone who meets her and hears her story will quickly be impressed and inspired. In spite of her very challenging family life, she has pursued a path of personal achievement as well as service to others through exceptional volunteerism and leadership. She reminds all adults that we must genuinely listen to and mentor young people so they can build the confidence to dream big and go for it.”
